TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1819.

From the N. Y. Commercial Adv. April 2.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

At a late hour last night, the fast sailing ship Ann Maria, capt. Waite, arrived from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 26th of Feb. By this arrival we have received from our correspondents at London, regular files of papers, prices current & Lloyd's lists, to the 24th of Feb. and Liverpool papers to the 20th inclusive.

The aggregate averages of grain, for the six weeks previous to the 23d of Feb. was as follows: wheat, 77-7; barley, 60-6; oats, 32-8; rye, 67-10; peas, 88-6.

The ports are in consequence shut against the importation of foreign wheat, and open for all other descriptions of grain. Wheat and all other kinds of grain may be imported free from British America.

Price of American stocks on the 23d of Feb. Bank shares, £20 a 21; new six per cent. 99 a 100; three per cent. 64½ a 64, with dividend from January.

The following vessels were to be launched at Plymouth, early in the spring; Foudroyant, 82 guns; Sterling Castle, 74; Portland, 60; Lancaster, 60; Pyramus, 42.—The Active frigate, Sir James Gordon, is fitting at Portsmouth for Quebec; captain Barry is appointed naval commissioner at that place, and goes out in the frigate.

The late ex-king of Spain, died a short time since at Naples.

On the 22d of Feb. it was reported in London, that the king of France was dead. In announcing this event the Sun of the 22d observes, "We shall be happy in finding that this report is not well founded, though we confess that, from the quarter whence we received it, we are not disposed to raise any doubts of its authenticity. We say we shall be happy in finding that the report is not well founded, not only because we revere the virtues, and respect the abilities of the French monarch, but because we fear that his death would be the signal for the vile faction of jacobinism once more to rear its head, and France be exposed to new horrors that might disturb the tranquility of all other states."

A definitive arrangement for regulating the payment of 100 millions indemnities, due from France to the allies, was concluded on the 2d of February; the time fixed on is June, 1820, for the payment of the first instalment of one third part.

M. Beauregard, formerly physician to Bonaparte, was to leave England early in the month of March for St. Helena, as medical attendant to the ex-emperor. This appointment is sanctioned by the allies.

A recent arrival from Sierre Leone, informs that the slave trade was in a prosperous state on the coast.

An association has been formed at Treves for the establishment of a settlement in the United States. Great numbers are ready to embark.

France is engaged in establishing a colony in Senegal, for the cultivation of cotton, indigo, coffee and sugar.

A letter from Stockholm of Jan. 15, contradicts the report, of Sweden having sold the island of St. Bartholomews.

Count Regnault, (Saint Jean d'Angely,) has obtained permission to return to Paris.

John Sackehouse, the Esquimaux, who went out in the late northern expedition, died at Edinburgh on the 14th Feb. He had already rendered important service to the country in the late expedition of discovery, and great expectations were formed of the utility which he would prove on the voyage about to sail for Baffin's bay. The admiralty had directed the greatest pains to be taken in his farther education; and he had been several months in Edinburgh with this view, when he was seized with a violent inflamation in the chest, which carried him off in a few days. Just before his death the poor Esquimaux said he knew he was going to die; that his father and mother had died in the same way; and that his sister, who was the last of his relations, had just appeared to him and called him away.

Lord Cochrane's steam vessel was lying at the commercial docks, London, on the 20th of February.

Madame de Stael will soon publish another posthumous work. The morning Herald says, "this work will contain much novel information."

The prince of Poix, governor of Varsailles, died at Paris on the 15th of February. Lord Erskine, was in a very low state of health.

An official article in the Stockholm Gazette, of the 2d February, states, that a new tariff of export duties is drawn up, and will be put in force; the basis of which is that the exportation of no goods shall be prohibited, except of some few, the exportation of which would cause a scarcity of some raw materials necessary to the country, or in some other manner loss and injury; and that all goods which may be exported in Swedish vessels (consequently timber,) may be exported in foreign vessels also, without any limitatation to certain quantities, or any difference in the duties, except that the former are to pay five, and the latter 10 per cent of the value; but all goods, the duties on which is only twelve schillings (or pence) per the 100 dollars, may be shipped in foreign vessels without any augmentation of the duty.

The following is an extract of a letter from our correspondent.

London, Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, half past seven o'clock

The funds which recently appeared steady, and in course of gradual improvement, have to day undergone a depression of nearly 1 per cent. below the concluding price of yesterday. The report in circulation concerning the death of the King of France, is thought to have influenced them in some degree—but the fall is perhaps to be ascribed, more immediately, to the actual state of the market. The great speculators are all sellers for this and the next account; and it is further stated, that stock to the amount of two millions will be delivered on selling day by two or three speculators only, instead of purchasing, to close their account. The operations of to day have been on the largest scale—The following are the concluding prices.

Bank stock 267½—navy, 5 per cent 106—4 per cent 95 7-8: reduced 76¾; consols for money and the accts. 75 5-8—B. long Ann. 20 3-16; India bonds, 67 68, P. M. Ex. bils, 8, 12, P M.—3½ per cent 85 7-8.

Westminster Election.

At the close of the poll this day, at 4 o'clock, the numbers were for Mr. Lamb, 2268—Mr. Hobhouse, 2230—Mr. Cartwright, 39.

The following is an extract of a letter from a respectable house at Liverpool, dated 25th of Feb. 1819.

"Good fair upland cotton was sold yesterday at 15d. We now quote this article at 14d and 16d. New Orleans 15d a 18½d. Sea Island 2s 5d a 3s 2d. The holders of cotton are very dispirited, and anxious to sell. 600 bales of Bengal were sold 3 days since at 6½d. Our corn market has been dull since the closing of the ports. Wheat has again declined 3d per 70 lbs—and 500 bushels of Indian corn were yesterday sold at 4s per bushel. A few casks of fine clover seed have been forced off at 90s per cwt. Sour flour is 32s 6d to 36s; flaxseed 105s. quite nominal: pot ashes 51s a 53s; pearl 56s a 58s; tar 15s a 18s; turpentine 13s a 15s.

From the London New Price Current.

LONDON MARKETS, FEB. 23.

The state of the Money Market continues to attract much attention and effect commerce; the cause of the late convulsion may be attributed to the great loans to foreign governments, which were attended with serious losses—to the loan in England: these extensive transactions have thrown money out of the usual channels, preventing discounts and the necessary accommodation to merchants: as the effects of the loan to the British government will now subside (the last instalment being paid on Friday last,) and the foreign loans being now in more regular channels, the question of the Bank restriction being also on the point of being finally settled, it is fully expected that the commercial affairs of the country will be gradually ameliorated, and that confidence which has been so much shaken by recent failures, will again be restored; it ought particularly to be observed that the languid state of trade has had the effect of depressing many articles of the first importance far below their real value, (what they can be raised for and brought to market,) and as many of these are great staple commodities, they offer a sure and beneficial object of speculation to the extensive capitalists of the country.

Cotton.—The purchases of Cotton since our last exceed 1300 bags; the Demerara and other West India descriptions brought forward by public sale went off at very reduced prices; 89 Demararas, of the fine mark, I. B. &c. 18 7-8d 20d a 20½d; 65 Berbice, inferior to middling, 15½ a 17½d; waste 13d a 14½; fair Carricoa 16½d; fair to good Jamaica 15½d a 15 1-8d; 348 pockets St. Domingo, all faults, 11 1-8d a 13½d. The other purchases were 400 bags Pernambuco in bond 21d; very good Bahias 20d; good fair Boweds 16½d; 100 very ordinary Surats, in the house, sold at 7d; 250 middling Bengals 6½d; 60 fine 7½.

The Sale of Cotton at the India House on Friday next consists of 900 bags of Surats, 480 Madras, and 250 Bengal; there are two other public sales advertised for the same day.

Corn. The ports are finally closed against the importation of Foreign Wheat; notwithstanding this circumstance and a small supply of English descriptions to yesterday's market, yet the trade was heavy at the decline of 1s per quarter; in Foreign there was no business doing; parcels were offered on lower terms without facilitating sales—Barley was exceeding heavy, and may be quoted 6s. per quarter lower. Clover Seed was heavy, and purchases made at a further decline.—Linseed was also lower.—Rape seed was unsaleable.

Tobacco.—There appeared last week a considerable revival in the demand for Tobacco, and several rather considerable parcels were reported to have changed hands at low prices; there were also enquiries for export. A sale of Kentucky advertised for Thursday has however, checked the reviving demand.

Hemp, Flax, and Tallow.—There was rather a revival in the demand for Tallow on Friday last, and the holders were in consequence, asking higher prices; for Yellow Candle here 70s; the request has since given way, and the market has declined to previous currency.—The demand for hemp has been limited, the holders offer parcels now in London at a further reduction of £1 a £2 without facilitating sales; contracts for arrival are still made on terms than for parcels here, but no sales of any extent have been effected since our last.—In Flax there is no alteration.

Mr. Adams' letter to our minister in Spain was published in London on the 27th of January. On publishing this letter the editor of the Statesman remarks:

"A document of high importance from North America, has been received. It comes in the form of an official letter from Mr. Adams, the American secretary of state, to the republican minister at the court of Madrid; and professes to be an answer to the representations of M. Pizarro, on the much canvassed subject of the Floridas. The view which is here taken by the American government, of the questions at issue between it and Spain, differs not materially from those which it has avowed on many former occasions, with regard to the proceedings which accompanied and followed, or which the statesman of North America would persuade us had provoked the seizure of the Spanish territory. This letter of Mr. Adams is considered by the National Intelligencer as the replication of its government to the notes and remonstrances of the Spanish ministry, and as containing the sum of the case to be established by the cabinet of Washington, on its own behalf: but, in fact, it appeals to the attention of this country, on grounds much nearer to the hearts of Englishmen; for three fourths of the latter, though nominally discussing the merits of the late war with the Seminole Indians, as it concerns the Spaniards only, is devoted to the single topic of the military butchery of Arbuthnot and Ambrister; and discloses, we can hardly hesitate to believe, the principles on which the American ministry are inclined to argue, when it may be pressed upon them by Great Britain, the great question in which our rights, and interests, and honor are involved. From the whole of this paper, with the documents annexed to it, the length of which makes it impossible for us at present to enter into any detail of their contents, we rather suspect that the American government mean to defend and justify the conduct of General Jackson towards the subjects of Great Britain, whom he and his court martial, between them, unlawfully put to the sword.—Not excuses merely, but justification: no justification, but the highest admiration and applause, are lavished upon Jackson for the whole of his proceedings towards those unhappy Englishmen, whether it regards his motives, his words and actions. Every contemptuous and odious epithet is freely bestowed upon the unfortunate men, and upon other British officers who had employed, assisted, or preceded them in their confidential intercourse with the Spanish authorities or the Indian tribes. We trust that upon recommendation, the cabinet of the United States may awake to the offensive character of that unworthy sophistry which the letter of Mr. Adams so largely exhibits, in defence of a series of horrible transactions; by disavowing and (so far as practicable, by) repairing which, a civilized and enlightened government can alone wipe out the stain it has received from them; for if the acts done in the Floridas are adopted at Washington, it is no longer gen. Jackson, but Mr. Monroe and the republic itself which become responsible to England, to civilization, and humanity.

From the same.

FROM AUX CAYES.

Captain Scoyen, of the schooner Fair-Play, who arrived this morning in 15 days from Aux Cayes, informs us, that General Gomar, one of Christophe's commanders, with a considerable force had passed into the mountains within the imperial dominions, and that gen. Boyer with 5000 troops had gone in pursuit of the hostile army, and had already cut off their retreat. A few stragglers had been taken, and a battle was daily expected.

Gen. Boyer had issued an order prohibiting piracy, and declaring that any of his subjects, convicted of this crime should be punished with death.

Sir Gregor M'Gregor, with the brig Hero of 18 guns, the ship Monarch of 18, the transport ships Petersburg and Honakas, and three sloops laden with arms, piovisions &c. sailed for Carthagena on the 10th of March. Many of his men had deserted in consequence of not receiving their wages.

From the Jamaica Courant, Feb. 15.

The American Brigantine Union, Putnam, out 32 days from Salem, Mas. with an assorted cargo, bound to a market, put into Port Royal on Saturday, being in distress and short of water.

For the Courant.

The British sloop Pitt, M'Nutt, master, owned in this port, on her passage from Old Providence to Halifax, with a cargo of Caraccas cocoa, in a violent gale, put into Lewistown, Roads, in the Delaware, to save the lives of the crew. She was seized, carried up to Wilmington, libelled, and is now under adjudication for an alledged breach of the non intercourse act of the United States—notwithstanding the affidavits, not only of the master and crew, but of the Delaware pilot, who states, in his examination before the district judge, that he advised running in for shelter, under the impossibility of keeping the sea.

Query—Under such a breach of the laws of hospitality, which, as is justly stated in a letter from America, would disgrace a nation of savages, is it not strange, that the United States schr. Firebrand should have ventured to seek a refit in Port Royal, and that the master of the brigantine Union, from Salem, should think of risking his owner's property, unless they were certain of meeting with a different reception in our ports, to what a British vessel, under similar, or perhaps more distressing circumstances, has met with in a port of the U. States.

Norfolk, April 1.

The President of the U. States arrived here, yesterday afternoon, in the steam-boat Roanoke from Washington, accompanied by J. C Calhoun, Esq. Secretary of War, and Lady, and Mr. Goveneur, his private secretary. On the approach of the boat, salutes were fired in succession by the garrisons at Craney Island, forts Nelson and Norfolk, and on her reaching the wharf, by the two Volunteer corps, the Independent and Junior Volunteers. Upon landing, his excellency was received by the mayor and common councilmen of the Borough, the collector and navy agent, and escorted by the troops, including the cavalry, commanded by capt. Cooper, to the apartments, prepared by the corporation for his reception at Mrs. Davis's boarding house. He was afterwards waited on by a number of our most respectable citizens and naval and military officers.

We understand that the president will take his departure in one of the steam boats, at an early hour this morning, for Burwell's Bay, the sight of the contemplated naval depot—will return in the afternoon—to-morrow be present at the laying of the corner stone of the new custom house, and, after dining with the Citizens at the Exchange, will take his departure for his southern tour the same evening or succeeding morning, via the Dismal Swamp, Canal, &c.

NEW CUSTOM HOUSE.

To-morrow at 12 o'clock, the corner stone of the new custom house, now erecting for the United States, by Mr. Lovet Fentress, will be laid with masonic honors, by lodges No. 1, 56, 16 and 100, in the presence of the President of the U. States, the Secretary of war and the gentlemen accompanying them, mayor, aldermen and common council of the borough, the several companies of volunteers of Norfolk and Portsmouth, and the citizens generally.

We are requested to state that John Linton, esq. of Prince William, is a candidate for the senate, to represent the counties of Fairfax and Prince William, in the place of John Love, esq. who has vacated his seat

We are authorised to state that Cuthbert Powel, Esq. declines being considered a Candidate for the Senate for the next election.

We are authorised to announce William H. Fitzhugh Esq. of Fairfax, as a Candidate for the next Senatorial district, composed at the next election, of the counties of Loudoun, Fairfax, and Fauquir.

Notice.

☞ The inhabitants of Alexandria will take notice, that the subscribers have been appointed assessors for the present year, agreeably to the laws of the corporation.

"The said assessors shall, immediately after their appointment, proceed to value the houses and lots within the limits of the corporation, and to demand from the masters and mistresses of every family, lists of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in their respective families, and also from every owner of taxable property, a list of such property. And if any master or mistress of a family, or any owner of taxable property, shall neglect or refuse to give in a list of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in his or her family, or of his or her taxable property, within five days after demand made thereof by any assessor, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars. And if any person whatsoever, shall wilfully omit or misrepresent in the list given in, any tytheable or any taxable property, or shall in any other manner conceal the same from the knowledge of the assessors, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax imposed on each tytheable or taxable property. Every merchant, shopkeeper, mechanic, or other person, having in his or her service or employment any clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, shall render an account of the same in his or her list of tytheables, and shall be accountable for the capitation tax hereby imposed, in like manner and under the same penalties, as if such clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, were a member of his or her family."

Exchange Coffee-House, at Havana.

JAMES BRISS, the director of this important mercantile establishment in the great commercial town of the Havana, takes this method of informing the Supercargoes, Masters of vessels, and all other persons trading to the above port, that he has opened on the 5th February 1819, under the protection of Royal Tribunal Consulado, and the approbation of his own government, "The New and Elegant Exchange House," on a plan that would do honor to any of the large sea towns of the United States of America. It is intended for the accommodation of merchants, natives, and foreigners, and likewise for captains of vessels and strangers, arriving every day in commercial and agricultural pursuits.—The house is situated in an airy part of the town, No. 7, Calle del Obispo, opposite the southern wing of the Governors' Palace. The building is commodious, having four large rooms elegantly furnished: besides that of the subscribers there is one for the use of non-residents. They will find American, English and French newspapers, price currents, pamphlets, charts, and maps—lists of vessels arrived, those about to sail, and the time of their clearances, and other interesting matter for the commercial world. The proprietor therefore will be extremely happy to see masters of vessels, supercargoes, and passengers soon after their arrival.

In order to render this infant establishment more useful and interesting, the proprietor begs leave to request them to procure several newspapers of the places of their departure—and to report the news they may get on their passages; and at the same time requests them to call one hour before their departure sailing from the above port to procure the shipping list, price current, or other news of commercial nature, which the said James Briss, will be happy to furnish them with.

It is well to observe that there is a bar room for refreshments, but not billiard tables, or any other kind of amusements are allowed. March 9.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or
